HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLLAGES DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE.

A good washing machine costs from five to eight dollars, but a washboard can be bought for twenty-five cents. This kind of economy gives a good many men a chance to look for a second wife.

There is a demand for good boys. The boy who is honest, earnest and industrious, will not be long out of a job. There are lots of prosperous business men, merchants and mechanics, who are constantly on the lookout for good boys. They do not look for them on the streets, however, but in some sort of employment. They have no use for an idle boy. He is too apt to make an idle man.

The difference between good and bad mothers, is so vast and so far-reaching that it is no exaggeration to say that the good mothers of this generation are building the homes of the next generation, and the bad mothers are building the prisons. For out of families nations are made; and if the father be the head and the hands of a family, the mother is the heart. No office in the world is so honorable as hers, no priesthood so holy, no influence so sweet and strong and lasting.

There are some of us so poor but we can train a few roses on the humble wall and their scent and beauty will long be remembered, and many a boy, instead of going to loaf upon the public highway will linger at home among the flowers. Moral degradation always begins at home.

What beautiful and tender associations cluster thick around the word "memory." The thought of it is a very shield; the name of it has a spell to call back the wanderer from the path of vice and far away where the myrtle blossoms and the palm trees wave, and the ocean sleeps upon coral strands, to the milk and honey of the land of the living. It is the cheering voice of his leader that urges him on through the danger of death and crowns the day with victory.

Encouragement is something we naturally look for. A little praise, a word of hope or a cheerful smile—something for the hungry soul to grasp and the weary mind to rest upon, as we climb the tolling mountains of life. How many poor hearts have sunk into despondency, when a little encouragement has reassured them. The soldier looks for it on the field of battle; it is the cheering voice of his leader that urges him on through the danger of death and crowns the day with victory.

Fine clothes and costly jewelry do not convert a rough into a gentleman any more than a snoroscope hat and a cigar make a man of a monkey.

A few smart, well-learned quotations from eminent authors will not convey the impression that you are conversant with literature. You are apt to become scorched in the flames you kindle, for your literary companions will soon sound your shallow depths and your ignorance will appear more glaring than before.

Whatever place your ambition prompts you to select as your field for future labor, however lofty and difficult of access the bright may be, fit yourself for it by slow and laborious process of study and toil. Begin at the very bottom round of the ladder, by the foundation firm and secure; build your structure of future greatness upon a thorough knowledge of your life work in all its bearings. In fact, be what you seem, and seem to be nothing but what you are.

Let us not wait for chances for doing good to come to us, but to go out to meet them. Too many beautiful opportunities escape us otherwise. As charity begins at home, so should love. We don't care much for either the charity or love that would leave its nearest to wait for duty or affection and go out into the world to work. We find it delightful plan to make each one of our home-folks happy about some one thing each day of our life—plan little surprises for them, brighten a dull hour, or congratulate them upon some achievement of their own.

Money is a good thing, especially in these times, but there is something much more valuable. It is character, the consciousness of a pure and honorable life. This it should be a young man's first aim preserve at any cost.

Sometimes the hasty word has been spoken, the sharp, stinging word born carelessly uttered in the home circle. The true wife's heart so often bleeds at the bitter, thoughtless, but cutting word of a husband. When she is gone to heaven, and he "weeps o'er her bier" he will remember it.

Men and women don't need to swing clubs to threaten home comfort. The husband, armed with a snar, and the wife who carries waspish tongue, are just as well compensated for death-dealing battle, as though they pounded each other with baseball bats.

The woman of today is a different being from the woman of fifty years ago. The shrinking, trembling, weeping heroines of Thackeray and Dickens have disappeared. It is better that it is so. Not only has the woman of today shaken off these old time weaknesses, but only has she assumed a true independence, which to some is well nigh disheartening, but she has made her determination known to the world, has waved it defiantly in our faces in the shape of certain signs and symbols which have a tendency to add emphasis to her emancipation.

Several important cases have already been settled satisfactorily by the board that met this week.

OUR SCHOOL REFORMATION.

While at Gallup last week it was our pleasure to visit the Gallup school. My McChesney-Brownson is the teacher at that place. Out of 113 in the district 104 had been enrolled. The attendance was up in many of the day we were at the school. The opening exercises were interesting and the singing was splendid. The boys and girls of that school say they want to have the best school in the county and will try to make the school a success. Remember that the boys and girls of other schools are going to arrive to have a better school than yours.

We were pleased to learn that a number of the citizens and patrons visited the opening of the school. Patrons can help the school along by their encouragement and an occasional visit. Teachers sometimes become discouraged. A few words of encouragement from patrons clear away the clouds and make our burden lighter.

Several teachers have enrolled all pupils in their district except five or six. This is a splendid beginning. Now keep up the attendance and do high grade work. Let every school try to be the better school of the county. We know some schools are very small and perhaps there are no advanced pupils in the district. Teacher and pupils of such a school need not be discouraged. Strive to make the greatest progress of any school in the county. Your opportunity to succeed in this is just as good as that of the largest or most advanced school in the county.

Many of the teachers write that they are having flattering success for the beginning of their school. Let us keep up the good work. Let the citizens and patrons "cheer up" the teachers and pupils. Teachers, speak words of cheer to your pupils. Write us concerning the good things of your school. We want to pass the good on to others. We want to hear who will have the best report for the first month.

Since last week's issue of the News the following reports of enrollment have been received:

Martin Gambill, Martha, Div. 4, Dist. 7, 40; Curtis Queen, Glenwood, 39; H. S. Bush, Cypress, Div. 2, Dist. 10, 62; G. C. Daniel, Florio branch school, Div. 3, Dist. 3, 31; Bertha Thompson, Vesta, Div. 7, Dist. 11, 41; H. R. Shapp, Terryville, 49; Carl Moore, Wilber, Div. 2, Dist. 3, 62; Leonard Lang, Webbville, Div. 7, Dist. 7, 29; Della Hay, Maize, Div. 4, Dist. 9, 56; W. V. Diamond, Walbridge, Div. 1, Dist. 13, 54; Mrs. Nathan George, Elmwood, Div. 2, Dist. 11, 42; Miss Mable Roberts, Ramseyville, Division 6, Dist. 2, 33; Miss Nora Roberts, Ramseyville, Div. 5, Dist. 2, 60; Miss Bertha Roberts, Ramseyville, Div. 3, Dist. 6, 38; Carson Elwood, Bala Park, Div. 6, Dist. 4, 23; Ozzey Burdett, Deep-hole, 35.

We thank the above teachers for their report.

A package of school books was left at Cusley's Store for each of the following districts. The trustees will please call there or send an order for same: Div. 1, Sub-Dist. 11, U. G. Sammons, trustee; Div. 4, Sub-District 11, L. F. Shapp, trustee; Div. 6, Sub-Dist. 2; Div. 4, Sub-Dist. 4.

In visiting the schools I want each teacher to have his record book and roll book at the school house as I want to examine them. The record book should have the complete list of all the pupils in the different grades.
